You played with me
You made me cry.
You kept me down
I dreamt to fly.
Game's over!

My love and heart
Were at your feet
There was no place
For us to meet.
Game's over!

Tell me!
Tell me where hopes have disappeared.
And now I dream away of you, my life
And I want love again so you tell me!
Tell me what now darkens the sky
What never goes to die
Your love my joyful heart was just a lie.

You played with me
You made me cry.
You kept me down
I dreamt to fly.
Game's over!

My love and heart
Were at your feet
There is no place
For us to meet.
Game's over!
